

Read the blurb and guess the book!

a.) A boy with a facial difference starts school for the first time. As he navigates friendships, bullying, and growing up, the story shows how kindness and acceptance can change lives.

b.) A young boy discovers he is not an ordinary child, but someone with magical powers. He is invited to a hidden school where he learns spells, faces dangerous challenges, and uncovers a dark secret from his past.

c.) A very clever young girl loves reading, even though her family does not value her talents. At school, she faces a strict and frightening headteacher, but she soon discovers a surprising ability that helps her change her life.

d.) A boy who lives in a small town shares his everyday life through funny diary entries. He often gets into awkward situations with family and school, leading to lots of humorous misunderstandings.

